CONNECTISYS DEBUTS ITS WIRELESS AMR PRODUCTS AT THE TECH ADVANTAGE 2008 EXPO

Valencia, California: Tuesday, January 29, 2008, ConectiSys Corporation (OTCBB:CNES), a developer of automatic meter reading technologies and associated wireless products for the energy markets, announced today that the Company will showcase its new product line at the TechAdvantage 2008 Expo in Anaheim, California on February 22nd thru 25th 2008. <http://www.techadvantage.org/> TechAdvantage 2008 is the exhibition that also includes the annual NRECA (National Rural Electric Cooperative Association) meeting <http://www.nreca.org/>. The members of NRECA are the logical market for the initial marketing push of the ConectiSys wireless electric meter reading networks.

This Expo is a perfect platform for ConectiSys and its H-NET™ Networks. At the Expo, the Company will setup for prospective clients, meters with live loads. These meters will form a local area network and feature instant network configuration, immediate plug & play capabilities and live data displays. Our audience at the Expo will consist of Municipalities, Electric Utilities, Energy Cooperatives and others. The Company anticipates several solid leads from this effort, hopefully resulting in sales any of which could be significant.

ConectiSys Director of Business Development, Rod Lighthipe, stated “With our new cost effective H-NET™ 6.0 wireless product line, the Company is positioned to establish itself as a significant member of the AMR community. The industry is primed for the entry of our technology which not only reduces the operating costs of the energy provider, but will (1) assist their customers in using less energy, (2) facilitate lower customer costs and (3) concurrently improve the environment by saving energy.” Mr. Lighthipe concluded by saying, “Come visit us at TechAdvantage 2008, booth 333.”

Please visit our new consumer friendly live data displays on the ConectiSys website. Simply press the login tab and go to Meter Data . Meter data from the TechAdvantage Expo will be displayed on the ConectiSys website in February from the 22nd thru 25th.
